1 Overview

- 1.1 The Population Health Research Network (PHRN) was established in 2009. It has received substantial funding through the Australian Government's National Collaborative Research Infrastructure programs with co-funding from Australian state and territory government agencies and academic partners to provide Australian researchers with access to linkable de-identified data from a diverse and rich range of health datasets, across jurisdictions and sectors.
- 1.2 The PHRN supports nationally and internationally significant population based research that will aim to provide policy-makers and healthcare providers with better information for decision-making, and contribute to improved health care service delivery and health outcomes for Australian communities.
- 1.3 The PHRN Board (the Board) will provide oversight and strategic direction for the PHRN.

2 Roles

- 2.1 The Board will provide oversight and strategic direction for the PHRN. The development and implementation of a strategic plan for the PHRN is a priority for the Board. It will also:
 - 2.1.1 Monitor compliance with the requirements of The University of Western Australia's agreements with the Department of Education and The University of Western Australia's agreements with PHRN Project Participants.
 - 2.1.2 Provide oversight of the development of appropriate key performance indicators and monitor performance against these indicators.
 - 2.1.3 Provide oversight of project and risk management strategies to ensure the PHRN is delivering against the investment and strategic plans.
 - 2.1.4 Provide oversight of financial management including annual budgets and business plans, and allocation of funding in line with the strategic direction of the PHRN.
 - 2.1.5 Facilitate and maintain relationships with all stakeholders.
- 2.2 The Chief Executive will develop, propose and oversee activities that implement the objectives of the PHRN. The Chief Executive will also provide strategic advice to the Board and act in accordance with the Board's directions.

3 Accountability

- 3.1 The Board is accountable to The University of Western Australia for ensuring that the activities of the PHRN are in accordance with the Commonwealth Funding Agreement. The University of Western Australia will nominate a delegate as a member of the Board to be the point of contact.

4 Membership

- 4.1 The Board will comprise a Chairman and up to six members.
- 4.2 The Chairman will be appointed by The University of Western Australia in consultation with the Department of Education.

- 4.3 The Chairman must be independent of institutions who receive or contribute funds through PHRN arrangements.
- 4.4 The role of the Chairman of the Board will be to:
- 4.4.1 Preside at meetings and exercise control as needed to enable the meeting to proceed in an orderly, lawful fashion.
 - 4.4.2 Ensure that the Board provides leadership and vision to the PHRN.
 - 4.4.3 Ensure that the Board has the necessary information to undertake effective decision-making and actions.
- 4.5 All Board members will be appointed by The University of Western Australia, in consultation with the Department of Education, for their outstanding abilities to guide the PHRN. They will be eminent people able to take a broad, national, collaborative perspective.
- 4.6 Members should:
- 4.6.1 Be free from any interest and any business or other relationship which could reasonably be perceived to interfere with the Members ability to act in the best interests of the PHRN.
 - 4.6.2 Support the strategic development of the PHRN in the context of Australia's national research infrastructure.
 - 4.6.3 Approach the role with integrity and a balanced view.
 - 4.6.4 Be able to represent the PHRN to government, stakeholders, and the national and international research community.
 - 4.6.5 Have the time and enthusiasm to devote to the role.
 - 4.6.6 Have a collective mix of skills including:
 - Experience in the health and social sciences.
 - Financial management skills.
 - Experience with the academic sector.
 - Experience with the government sector.
 - Experience with information management at enterprise or system level.
 - Marketing skills.
 - National and international contacts to facilitate integration of the PHRN with the broader scientific community.
 - Experience with consumer and community participation.
 - 4.6.7 The membership will include a nominee of The University of Western Australia, and up to five members who have the specific skills, experience and networks necessary to guide the PHRN into the future.
 - 4.6.8 Terms of appointment of the Chairman and members will be at the discretion of the University of Western Australia.
 - 4.6.9 Proxy Board Members may not be appointed.

- 4.6.10 Board members may resign from their appointments to the Board at any time on giving The University of Western Australia at least one month's written notice of resignation.
- 4.6.11 Members of the Board may recommend to The University of Western Australia by resolution of a two thirds majority of Members to remove any Member of the Board from office.
- 4.6.12 In addition to any other circumstances in which the office of a Member of the Board becomes vacant, the office of a Member of the Board becomes vacant if that Member of the Board:
- Is not present at two consecutive Board meetings without special leave of absence from the Members and the Members declare his or her seat to be vacant;
 - Is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with The University of Western Australia in relation to the PHRN and fails to declare the nature of his interest;
 - Is removed from office in accordance with clause 4.6.11; or
 - Resigns from office in accordance with clause 4.6.10.

5 Conduct of Board Members

- 5.1 The Board Members will abide by The University of Western Australia's Committee Members Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics. For more information see <http://www.hr.uwa.edu.au/policies/policies/conduct/code>
- 5.2 Members will abide by The University of Western Australia's Conflicts of Interest Policy and the PHRN Board Guidelines and Procedures for the Management of Conflicts of Interest and Roles. For more information see <http://www.hr.uwa.edu.au/policies/policies/conduct/conflicts>
- 5.3 "Conflicts of role arise when an officer is required to fulfil multiple roles that may be in conflict with each other to some degree".¹
- 5.4 Where an official has multiple roles, for example an employee of a government agency also is a member of a board, this can place the official in a difficult situation. "The result can be poor performance of one of the roles, at best, and unlawful or improper decision making at worst."²

6 Remuneration of Board Members

- 6.1 Members will receive an honorarium payment. The amount will be determined by The University of Western Australia.
- 6.2 Expenses incurred by members in relation their membership of the Board such as travel will be reimbursed consistent with The University of Western Australia's Policy on Travel Payments. Original tax invoices will need to be forwarded to the PHRN Office for reimbursement of expenses.

7 Conduct of Board Meetings

- 7.1 The Board shall meet on a regular basis, which will normally be four meetings per year. Meetings may be conducted face to face or by teleconference.
- 7.2 Each Board Member must be given at least 28 days prior written notice of each Board meeting, unless all of the Board Members agree in writing to hold the meeting on shorter notice. The notice must include the list of items of business to be considered at the meeting.
- 7.3 Agenda papers will be circulated at least seven days prior to meetings.
- 7.4 A quorum will be four people including the Chairman and three other members.
- 7.5 A resolution of the Board must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by the members of the Board entitled to vote on the resolution.
- 7.6 Every member of the Board is entitled to one vote.
- 7.7 The Chairman has a casting vote if necessary in addition to any vote he or she has as a member of the Board.
- 7.8 The Board Members may elect a Chairman of a Board meeting if the Chairman is unable to attend a Board meeting.
- 7.9 The Chairman may invite any person to attend a Board meeting as an observer.
- 7.10 The Chief Executive will be in attendance at Board meetings.
- 7.11 Each Board Member is entitled to one vote. Except in relation to matters identified as requiring unanimous decision, Board decisions are to be made by a simple majority vote on a show of hands of the Board Members present at the meeting and entitled to vote. The Chairman will have a casting vote.
- 7.12 The Board may pass resolutions without holding a meeting, by each member signing a copy of the resolution in identical form. The date of the resolution will be the date of signing by the last Board Member to sign.

8 Communication of Board Decisions

- 8.1 The Chairman or the Chief Executive will be responsible for communicating Board decisions to stakeholders as appropriate.

9 Records

- 9.1 The PHRN Office will serve as secretariat for the Board.
- 9.2 The PHRN Office will prepare and maintain written records of the PHRN Board's activities, including agendas and minutes of all meetings.

10 Committees

- 10.1 The Board may establish one or more advisory committees or working groups to provide advice to the Board on matters outside the experience or expertise of Board Members. If it does so, the following will apply:
- 10.2 The composition and membership of each committee will be at the discretion of the Board.

- 10.3 At each Board meeting, the Committee Chairman must report back to the Board on the committee's activities and recommendations.
- 10.4 The Chairman may invite one or more members of a committee to attend a Board meeting at which the committee's recommendations are to be discussed.
- 10.5 Committee members attending a Board meeting will not be entitled to vote unless they are also a Board Member.

11 Complaints

- 11.1 All complaints will be handled according to The University of Western Australia's complaints policies and procedures. For more information see <http://www.uwa.edu.au/university/complaints>

12 Review of Board Performance

- 12.1 The Board will, on an annual basis, review its performance as well as the performance of individual members. Issues reviewed may include the role of the Board, the performance of the Board in relation to its Charter, the membership and the conduct of Board meetings.

13 Amendments to the Charter

- 13.1 This Charter may be amended by following the procedure below:
 - 13.1.1 The proposal must be in writing and circulated to all Board members for their consideration.
 - 13.1.2 The views of the members should be discussed at the next scheduled meeting of the Board, and a vote taken at that meeting. Any member unable to attend such a meeting may register his or her views in writing.
 - 13.1.3 The recommended amendment/s will be sent to The University of Western Australia for ratification.
